Your Autopay amount has changed

Hello DANIEL HUNT,

We want to make you aware of a change to the payments for your Verizon Visa Signature® Card account.

Due to recent activity since your last billing statement, the amount of your upcoming Autopay payment has changed to $0.00 and will be posted on 01/20/2025.

As a reminder, the Autopay amount for your account could change between the date of this letter and your due date based on purchases, payments, credits, returns, disputes or other activity on your account.

Keep in mind:

- Your Autopay amount is calculated on your statement closing date. This amount deducted may be lower due to additional payments, credits, returns or disputes since your statement closing date.
- Your Autopay amount will not exceed the previous statement amount.
- Your Autopay payment will be deducted from your bank account on the scheduled due date.
- If you have discontinued Autopay for your account, please refer to the Payment Information section of your billing statement for the payment amount due.
- You can review account activity and payments by logging into your account anytime.

If you have any questions, please let us know. We value your business and are here to help when you need us.

Sincerely,

Synchrony Customer Care
